Read through Matthew, Mark, Luke and John as many times as possible before studying Luke.

Don't worry!

I really don't expect you will read all the Gospels through 21 times before you start studying Luke...

But I do expect that you will try as hard as you can to read them through as many times as you can!

Once you have read the Gospels through three times marking God the Father, God the Son, and God the Spirit,
Feel free to choose which marking you would like to do next!

Once you see how valuable pre-course observation is,
You won't want to start studying any book of the Bible without doing it!

Be Faithful to Listen to Him!

Luke 12:4-10

Who is it that Jesus calls His friends? Stay in context.

Who do Jesus' disciples not have to fear?

Why not?

Who do Jesus' disciples need to fear?

Why?

How valuable are sparrows?

Does God ever neglect even one sparrow?

What does God equate with one sparrow?

What does God equate with one hair on your head?

Why does God number the very hairs on your head?

If you are a follower of Jesus, how valuable are you to God?

Who will the Son of Man confess before the angels of God? (Remember to whom Jesus is talking.)

Who will the Son of Man deny before the angels of God? (Remember to whom Jesus is talking.)

Is it possible to be forgiven for speaking a word against the Son of Man?

Is it possible to be forgiven for speaking a word against the Holy Spirit?

Luke 12:11-34

What will happen to Jesus' disciples?

3.

What will be the charge against them?

Will they need to be concerned about their defender?

Why not? What will the Holy Spirit do?

To whom has Jesus been speaking?

Who now speaks to Jesus?

What does this man demand for Jesus to do?

What does Jesus call back to the man?

To whom does Jesus now speak? (Be careful—check out the entire context!)

Of what does Jesus tell His disciples to beware and for what does He tell them to be on guard?

What wrong belief do some people have?

Of what does life consist?

Jesus now tells His disciples a parable, which He uses to illustrate the teaching He has just given them. What parable does He tell?

What was true of the rich man's land?

What problem did the rich man think he had?

How did he decide to solve his problem?

3.

4.

What did God call this man?

What was God requiring from the man?

What would happen to the possessions of the man?

Of what did Jesus say this man was guilty?

About what did Jesus command His disciples to stop worrying?

1.

Why?

1.

2.

Jesus uses part of His creation to illustrate what He is teaching to His disciples. Just think—when Jesus created ravens, He was planning on bringing glory to Himself by using them to teach us! What don't ravens have to do?

1.

What don't ravens have?

1.

2.

How do the ravens stay alive if they don't sow or reap or store food to eat?

How valuable are birds?

How valuable are Jesus' disciples?

Will worry help you stay alive?

What are men capable of doing?

Should Jesus' disciples worry about anything at all?

Jesus once again uses part of His creation to illustrate what He is teaching to His disciples. And once again think about the fact that when Jesus created lilies, He was planning on bringing glory to Himself by using them to teach us!

What don't lilies have to do?

Who or which was better dressed—Solomon or a lily?

Who provided the lily's wardrobe?

How long do lilies live?

Which is more valuable—a disciple of Jesus or a lily?

What does Jesus call His disciples?

What three exhortations does He give them?

1.

2.

3.

Who else eagerly seeks for these things?

Why aren't God's children allowed to seek for them at all, much less eagerly?

What are God's children commanded to seek?

If we seek God's kingdom, what else will be additionally given to us?

What does Jesus call His disciples?

Of what are they not to be afraid?

Why not?

In contrast to seeking food and clothing, what are Jesus' disciples told to sell?

What are they to do with the money earned from selling their possessions?

In doing so, what are they making for themselves?

1.

2.

What will not happen to their money belt?

What cannot touch their treasure in heaven?

What will be wherever your treasure is?

Where are our hearts supposed to be?

So where does our treasure need to be?

Luke 12:35-48

What two exhortations does Jesus give His followers?

What illustration does He use to explain His exhortations?

What should servants be doing while their master is at a wedding feast?

What should servants be ready to do immediately when their master comes home from the wedding feast?

What is true of those slaves who are waiting vigilantly for their master's return?

Why are they blessed? What does their master do?

1.

2.

3.

When might the master return from the wedding feast?

1.

Does the slave's blessing depend upon the time of the master's return?

What does it depend on?

Jesus uses one additional illustration to make sure His disciples understand what He is saying. What is it?

What does a thief do in order to plunder a house?

What would prevent a thief from plundering a house?

What is necessary to prevent a thief from breaking into a house to steal?

If the head of the house does not know when the thief is coming, what is his only option?

How are Jesus' followers to be like the head of a house?

Do they know when the Son of Man is coming?

What is their only option?

At this point in Jesus' teaching, what does Peter want to know?

Does Jesus stop and answer him?

How does Jesus answer Peter?

What question does He ask Him?

What is the steward called who gives the servants their rations at the proper time?

1.

Who put the steward in charge of the servants?

What is true of the steward whom the master finds giving the servants their rations at the proper time?

What will his blessing be?

If the slave thinks that his master won't come for a long time, what might he do?

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

What will the master do when he returns and finds his slave behaving contrary to his wishes?

1.

2.

What is that slave?

What will happen to the slave who knew his master's will and yet did not get ready or act in accord with his will?

What will happen to the slave who did not know his master's will and committed deeds worthy of a flogging?

What will be required from everyone who has been given much?

What will be required from everyone who has been entrusted with much?

Luke 12:49-53

What did Jesus come to do?

What was Jesus' desire?

What did Jesus come to undergo? (Look up both of these words in a concordance: baptism and undergo.)

How will Jesus feel until He has undergone His baptism?

Did Jesus come to grant peace on earth?

What did Jesus come for?

What would happen to households?

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

Luke 12:54-56

To whom does Jesus now speak?

What did the crowds know that a cloud rising in the west meant?

What did the crowds know that a south wind blowing meant?

What does Jesus call the crowds?

Even though they knew how to analyze the appearance of the earth and the sky, what didn't they do?

Luke 12:57-59

What else didn't they do?

What should hypocrites do while they are going with their opponent to appear before the magistrate?

If a hypocrite doesn't settle with his opponent, what will the opponent do?

What will the judge do?

What will the officer do?

When will the hypocrite get out of prison?
